

MARGARET FRIEDBERG

LEGAL EXPERIENCE:

UNITED STATES ATTORNEY'S OFFICE, Eastern District of New York

Special Assistant United States Attorney. June 2014-June 2015.

Assistant United States Attorney. November 1991 – February 2005.

Investigated and prosecuted high-level, newsworthy, federal criminal matters; litigated appeals; sat on internal government committees including, wire-tap committees, hiring committees; and supervised numerous bureaus during a 16-year career. Detailed below are positions held, awards conferred and case highlights:

Supervisory positions held:

Chief, Narcotics and Money Laundering Unit	2000-2003
Chief, General Crimes Unit	1999-2000
Deputy Chief, Public Corruption Unit	1999
Deputy Chief, Narcotics Unit	1998
Deputy Chief, Violent Criminal Enterprises Unit	1996-1998

Significant awards received

U.S. Department of Justice National Director's Award for Superior Performance	1994, 1995, 1996
Stimpson Medal of Honor, NYC Bar Association	1998
Federal Law Enforcement Foundation Award	1996
Federal Law Enforcement Officer's Award	1995

Significant cases and matters handled:

Successfully investigated, prosecuted and supervised numerous cases involving money laundering, complex narcotics, public corruption, securities and mail fraud, bribery, perjury, all manners of violent crime, RICO, and murder-for-hire, including, high profile matters which were followed regularly by the New York Times and other media.

Tried numerous significant long-term, complex, federal criminal trials in district court. Supervised and conducted many long-term grand jury investigations. Coordinated and negotiated multi-federal and state agency enforcement directives. Supervised international and multi-jurisdictional narcotics and money laundering cases involving wiretapping and other court ordered intrusions into drug cartels throughout the world, particularly in South America, Mexico, the Caribbean, Thailand, Myanmar, Nigeria, and Afghanistan.

Briefed and argued over 20 appeals before the Second Circuit in cases involving sufficiency, habeas corpus and procedural and substantive criminal law, and sentencing issues.

Led and participated in multiple internal managerial aspects of the Office, including important committees, such as hiring committees and death penalty review committees.

CENTER FOR THE ADVANCEMENT OF PUBLIC INTEGRITY, Columbia Law School

April 2014 – present. Board member.

FORDHAM LAW SCHOOL, New York, New York

September 2013- 2015. Adjunct Professor of Appellate Drafting and Litigation.

MILBANK TWEED HADLEY & McCLOY, New York City

Associate in litigation and bankruptcy departments. October 1989-September 1991

Worked on all phases of state and federal commercial and bankruptcy litigation including drafting pleadings and pre-trial orders, managing large-scale document productions, handling pre-trial motion practice, taking and defending depositions and arguing motions.

THE HONORABLE CAROL BAGLEY AMON, CHIEF JUDGE

United States District Court, Eastern District of New York

Law Clerk. September 1988-August 1989

EDUCATION:

FORDHAM UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF LAW

J.D. May 1988. Editor, Urban Law Journal. Published Note.

BARNARD COLLEGE, COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY

B.A. in English, conferred cum laude. May 1985. Dean's List all years.

REFERENCES:

References available on request.